

CLOTHING, ETC.—M. GUTMAN & CO.

NEVER

Before Have We Shown Such an Immense Assortment of

BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

As we do this season. You will find everything worth having in our new Fall and Winter Stock. For the little fellows we have

DOUBLE-BREADED SUITS!
REEFER SUITS!
JUNIOR SUITS!
VELVET SUITS!

At prices that make the other dealers wonder how we do it.

For the larger boys we have Double and Single-Breasted Suits, in the very newest styles in Cassimeres, Worsteds, Cheviots and Vicunas. These goods are well made and trimmed, perfect in fit, and are being sold for less money than the ordinary shop-goods that are being offered at some of the stores. If you value a dollar call on us.

IN CRIMINAL CIRCLES.

Things Pretty Brisk in Police Circles Just at Present.

A CUTTING SCRAPE EARLY SUNDAY

Around the Hill—The Cutter in Jail to Await a Hearing—A House of Ill Fame Raided on Two Charges. Summers Looked up Twice—Various Cases in the City and Neighborhood.

Early yesterday morning Charlie Gillespie, who works for his brother-in-law, a dairyman beyond the Hempfield tunnel, cut Henry Bowers pretty severely in the abdomen with a razor. The weapon he says was entrusted to him to carry home. He met a crowd of young fellows who taunted him with the statement that he had two brothers who were blackshoop. He denied this, saying they had been taken into the union. To avoid a quarrel he left the crowd and started home, when Bowers and others followed him, and he alleges, struck him repeatedly. At last, in self defense, he drew the razor and cut Bowers.

After this is supposed to have occurred Gillespie called at police headquarters and asked for protection, saying he had been assaulted. He went on out to his home, and was arrested there yesterday, and Squire Gillespie sent him to jail for a hearing to-day. Bowers is not dangerously hurt.

LIVELY AT BRIDGEPORT.

An Unusually Brisk Season in Police Circles Reported.

Edward Hollinger and Peter Grigay got into an altercation in a Bridgeport saloon Saturday evening and repaired to the river edge to settle it. The two men were having a lively scrap when Officer Thompson put in an appearance and arrested both men. They were taken to jail and held out for a hearing this afternoon.

It is reported that Officer Thompson was arrested for interfering with Officer Thompson in making the arrest. He was held in jail for a hearing.

John Garrett was arrested under two charges, one for attempting to provoke a breach of the peace and the other for an assault on Emory J. Garrett. This case was heard, and a fine of $4.95 assessed on each charge. He pleaded guilty, paid his fine and went home.

John Reed and John Meisenholder had a fight in Etanville. Both were arrested. Meisenholder gave bail for his appearance, while Reed was remanded for a hearing this morning.

Robert Pervis was arrested for disorderly conduct. He had a hearing and was fined $3.95; paid.

Ross Alexander was arrested, charged with disorderly conduct and attempt to provoke a breach of the peace. He was held for a hearing.

Mrs. Mary Pervis was arrested on a charge of being drunk. She was held for a hearing.

Patrick McGrath was arrested for assault and battery. He is out on bail.

Running it on the Sly.

When the new Lincoln school was completed at the head of Tenth street an order was issued that all houses of ill repute must move out of that locality, and it was supposed the order had been complied with until recently. Josephine Boyd converted her home into a confectionery, ostensibly, but Saturday night the police raided it and locked her and all the inmates up, herself on two charges, keeping a house and selling beer without a license. They spent Sunday behind the bars. There are in all twenty-one cases on the docket for this morning's court.

Out and in Again.

Saturday night a party of tramps who have been about town for some time, were run in, but on promising to leave town they were let go. Last night Officers Snider and Ritz brought in a wagon load of vagrants, and among them were found three of those who had been let go in the morning.

A Martin's Ferry Fall.

Last night at 9 o'clock the Warden house in Martin's Ferry was pulled by the police, and four women, including a married woman from Wheeling, and three men were captured. This place had not been pulled for some time past and last night's activity of the police was entirely unlooked for.

In the Circuit Court.

In Part I of the circuit court, Judge Campbell, the following business was transacted Saturday:

James W. Hurley vs. G. O. Smith; dismissed.

Amelia Groves vs. Sonnetfelt and Scholenski; judgment for plaintiff for $1,000.

Montana Coal and Coke Company vs. Wheeling Coal and Coke Company; judgment for plaintiff.

Schulbach Brewing Company vs. John H. Danner, et al.; order tendering pleas filed.

John Binney vs. U. M. Hervoy; defendant demurred to the declaration of plaintiff, argued and submitted.

W. C. Pickett vs. Wheeling Electrical Company; motion to dismiss argued and overruled.

State for use of D. Dougherty vs. James Stendman and another; demurrer to declarations overruled.

Daniel Prager vs. John Cox; reset for September 25.

J. W. Hollingworth was admitted to practice.

John Bane, a native of Germany, was admitted to citizenship.

George W. Ratcliffe, trustee, vs. E. M. Richards, et al.; decree of reference.

The Charity Circles.

All of the committees appointed to have charge of the charity circles are called to meet at the chamber of commerce to-morrow evening at half past seven o'clock. This call includes the committees on circus and menagerie, side show and concert and parade. Every member should be present.

His Nineteenth Anniversary.

Yesterday Rev. Dr. D. A. Cunningham entered upon the nineteenth year of his pastorate of the First Presbyterian church. No celebration of the anniversary was held, but Dr. Cunningham referred to it appropriately in his sermon at the morning service.

"Sweet Marie" and all late songs at half price. F. W. BAUMER & CO.

The Mutual German Savings and Loan Association is a home institution, managed by sound, Wheeling business men, and its money all loaned on first mortgage, and learn about it. Peabody Building, Rooms 391 and 392.

Dr. J. W. Morris has removed his office from 1119 Chapline street to the Peabody building, corner Market and Eleventh streets.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

The current number of Frank Leslie's Budget contains the following, in which a Wheeling man and a prominent actress figure: A thrilling adventure, which narrowly escaped a fatal ending, befel Miss Mary Anderson, the actress, a few years ago at the Beck river bridge, near Wheeling, W. Va. Miss Anderson, with her stepfather and a lady, were being transferred to a train, and, while crossing a bridge, the horses attached to the carriage became frightened, ran away and totally wrecked the vehicle. Miss Anderson jumped from the carriage and landed on the brink of an opening in the bridge, and would have fallen into the waters below but for the presence of mind of Henry Shallicross, of the transfer company, who caught her in his arms just as she was falling. The gratitude of Miss Anderson and Dr. Griffin, her stepfather, was expressed by a substantial present, and Shallicross became the hero of Wheeling.

J. W. Leonard, of Washington, Pa., autographed at the McLure.

C. Stathers left Saturday to re-enter the Morgantown University.

Captain C. Shriver, of Bethany, was here yesterday, a guest at the Behler.

Frederick Specht, Jr., the well known New York tenor, figures on the McLure register.

Miss Fanny Buchanan, of Cleveland, is the guest of Miss Mamie Thompson, No. 78 Alley 13.

Robert Downing and wife, the latter known on the stage as Eugenie Blair, are at the McLure.

Mr. W. L. Callin, wife and sister-in-law, will leave to-day for Cleveland and a tour of the lakes.

G. N. Diggs, a well known Huntington timber man, is here on a business trip, a guest at the Behler.

Mr. Newberger, private secretary of Senator Camden, is a guest at M. Heyman's, on Chapline street.

John C. Peck, of Clarkburg, and J. B. Craig and T. C. Harvey and wife, of New Martinsville, are guests of the Hotel Behler.

Fence Snyder, a former well known Wheeling boy, now of Brainerd, Miss., is here on a visit, accompanied by his little daughter.

Miss Emma Doddridge, of Charleston, who has been visiting friends and relatives here for some time, will leave for home to-morrow.

Master Thomas P. Gillogan, son of the well known contractor, Mr. P. J. Gillogan, has entered St. Francis College, at Loretto, Pa.

Mrs. Mary Stratton and her daughter Nellie, of Chicago, are the guests of Mrs. W. McK. Day, Mrs. Stratton's aunt, North Market street.

Mrs. C. P. Reid and daughter, Inez, have returned from Pittsburgh, where they were the guests of friends during the G. A. R. R. encampment.

Hezekiah Stull is among his old Bridgeport friends from the Soldiers' Home at Sandusky. He speaks in high terms of the Soldiers' Home.

Right Rev. Monsignor Sullivan left last evening for the east. After a brief rest in Washington he will sail for a European tour for the benefit of his health.

Miss Pauline H. Seguin, of the business college and conservatory of music, Wheeling, was in the city to-day, and will endeavor to secure pupils from this city.—Bellaire Independent.

Messrs. William Stell, S. I. Singleton, G. Ed. Mendel, Tom Little and others left yesterday to join Messrs. J. K. Hall and T. C. Moffat on a hunting and fishing trip on the South Branch.

Col. Edward Reid, who has been enjoying himself among the "Thousand Islands" for the past three weeks, is home again, and says the sight of Wheeling Island is good enough for him.

Two charming young ladies of the North End, Misses Maggie O'Neill and May Desmond, were surprised by a large circle of their friends on Tuesday evening at the home of Officer Desmond. A most enjoyable time was spent by all present, cards and dancing being the main features of the evening. Refreshments were served at a seasonable hour. Miss Bertha Desmond presided at the piano.

Lieut. W. C. P. Muir, of Kentucky, with Mrs. Muir, arrived in the city yesterday morning, and the former will resume his position as military instructor at the Linsly Institute. Sickness detained the lieutenant at his home in Kentucky, but his friends here will be glad to learn that he seems fully to have regained his health.

The Dirty Streets.

To the Editor of the Intelligence.

Sir:—I beg leave to call your attention to the filthy condition of Market street between Sixteenth and Tenth streets. Where is the street sweeper? What is the board of public works doing with that sweeper? The appropriation was sufficient. Let us have results. Wheeling, September 16. C. C.
